LIFE.

We are born; we laugh; we weep;
We love; we drop; we die!
Oh! wherefore do we laugh or weep?
Why do we live or die?
Who knows that secret deep?
Alas, not I!

Why dith the violet springs:
Furze by human eye
Why do the radiant seasons bring Sweet thoughts that quickly fly?
Why do our fond hearts cling
To things that die?

We toll—through pain and wrong;
We fight—and fly;
We love; we lose; and then, or
long,
Stone dead we lie.
O, life! is all thy song
Endure and—die?

Mrs. Mary E. Gregory, 708 East Vilas,

GOVERNOR OF TEXAS IS SHOWN BY "OUR BOB"

Oklahoma City, Aug. 6.—Governor Williams some time ago received a communication from the executive office of Texas, in which it was suggested that Texas' executive would decline to honor requisitions that were not based upon indictments. Instead, as grand juries are unusual in Oklahoma and the procedure under the constitution and laws does not take grand juries into consideration as necessary, it looked like Oklahoma fugitives in Texas would be immune from return. An explanation of the laws by Governor Williams, however, resulted in the Texas rule being modified, and it is expected that requisitions based upon the usual procedure in this state will in the future be recognized.
